LOCAL DUFF CANDIDATES!

Ken Fletcher and Linda Lounsberry have announced themselves as candidates for DUFF (Down Under Fan Fund). They would appreciate your support. Since DUFF pays for only one person, Ken and Linda will be involved in a variety of projects for their own Better Half Transfer Fund.

RECENT FANNISH ARRIVALS IN THE TWIN CITIES:

Joyce Scrivner, Mike Butler, Garth Danielson, Joe Wesson, Vera Match, Dave Romm. Soon to arrive is Ira M. "Mitch" Thornhill.

MINICON

April 13-15, 1979 at the Radisson, downtown Minneapolis. Registration $15 at the door.

Certain pre-Con activities are open to members of Minn-STF and visiting friends who are registered for Minicon. Call Lee & Carol, 339-9031, for information.

Go-fors are needed. Call Don Bailey, 374-9474, to volunteer.

There will be a special-edition book available at Minicon, Theodore Sturgeon's novelette Maturity and a bibliography. The price is $10.

Recently, Don Bailey and Keith Hauzer-Love approached RUNE coordinator Lee Pelton with the suggestion that RUNE have a regular column on bridge. They were quickly informed of:

RULE #1: NO BRIDGE.

Minn-STF maintains a library for the use of members. There is usually a box of books available at meetings. If members would like to borrow books at other times, call Caryl & Dave Wixon at 825-0018.

WHAT THE MEMBERS ARE DOING THESE DAYS:

NATE BUCKLIN, along with Al Standish, Reed Waller, and Karon Hall, is playing in a touring band backing country singer Carlotta Narcotte.

JIM YOUNG is playing in the band Riffin', which has recently had some gigs in River Falls. Watch for them locally.

GREG KENTER has a new store, specializing in comics and paperback SF. It's in the Upstairs Mart, above Gray's Campus Drugs in Dinkytown. Check with Greg at 870-8451 to find out the hours.

JOHN BARTLETT's "Digressions" and M.K. DIGRE's "Quinapalus" will have new issues published soon.

If you have any items of interest to members and friends of Minn-STF, or if you have an announcement about something pertaining to Minn-STF members, we would like to publish it in HUNE or HENBLATT.
