Optional Badge Information Notes:

The primary name will be in larger type and more prominently located on your badge. The secondary information will be in smaller type (still intended to be legible at 6 feet), and less prominently located. It can be left blank.

This is a good place for your e-mail address or ICQ #, if you want people you know from on-line to spot you, or other information you want people to recognize you by — are you here representing a Worldcon bid, a publisher or magazine, or a bookstore?

NOTE: Either the primary or secondary field must contain a form of your full name (not just first name); if you don't put it in, we will. A fancish use name, even if unrelated to your legal name, is okay (but may need to be documented).

In addition, your city and state will appear on the badge. Bunches of conventions do this. We like it. We thought we'd do it, too.

If you have special needs regarding your badge, please write and tell us.
