The Bar is also in its usual place.

Registration/ Volunteers/ Info Desk
Located in the usual place, the Registration/ Volunteers/ Info Desk is open as well as at the Dead Dog party Sunday evening in the convention’s bar. Registering at Minicon 50 gets you a nice discount.

What’s the Bozo Bus Tribune?
The Bozo is the house newspaper of Minicon. It contains clues for the Medallion Hunt, clarifications, emendations, corrections, and more information to keep us all up to date. Look for it at strategic locations around the con.

Late Checkout
Our group late checkout is 2pm, both Sunday and Monday, based on availability. Make sure you tell the hotel you want late checkout, if you do, and the sooner, the better.

Register for Minicon 51
Memberships for Minicon 51 can be purchased any time the registration desk is open as well as at the Dead Dog party Sunday evening in the convention’s bar. Registering at Minicon 50 gets you a nice discount.

Minneapolis in 2073
Building on Worldcon sixty years in advance, because bidding for Worldcon after it had occurred was just as fun. Pre-supporting membership forms are available; you can turn them in at the registration desk.

Emergencies
In case of emergency, don’t look for us – call 911!

Volunteers: We Need You!
If you see something that needs doing—perhaps a bowl of chips is empty, or a room doesn’t have enough chairs—see if you can get it done. If you’re not sure how, ask the department head or nearest person who seems to know what’s going on. If everyone pitches in just a little bit, we also have some more formal volunteering with scheduled shifts. There will be a sign-up sheet at the Registration/ Volunteers/ Info Desk.

Code of Conduct Committee
To report violations of our code of conduct, call 612-405-7313. Please leave your voice mail if we don’t answer right away.

After-Con Parties
Thank-Closing Ceremonies ends it? Not hardly...

Dead Dog Party
Starts Sunday after closing ceremonies in the bar.

Dessicated Dodo Party
Dessicated Dodo Party at Scott and Irene Raun’s, 3928 11th Ave S, Minneapolis, starting at 6pm.

Post-Mortem and Devonian Ductina Party

What is Minn-Stf?
The Minnesota Science Fiction Society (aka Minn-Stf and other things) is the parent organization of Minicon; it’s also an organization that holds great fannish parties twice a month. We call these parties ‘meetings’, and you are invited! Find more details at mnsst.org/inline/.
