

Bozo Bus Tribune

The Official Organ of Minicon 52

"We're all bozos on this bus!"

Opening Ceremonies...

...was short and full of laughs both raucous and awkward. Mark Oshiro extolled Twin Cities fandom, declaring that Minicon 52 will be his last Fan GoH gig because he's published a book and will presumably be a pro GoH from now on. Master of Ceremonies Toni Brust introduced Jim Hines warmly: "He's a big part of the reason Minicon has an anti-harassment policy." When Jim gave her a meaningful look and the crowd tittered with laughter, she went on: "I hate accidental punchlines! You know what? I'm gonna let it ride." As for Mr. Hines, he told us that he'd been intending to prepare some remarks for us, "but then the Star Wars trailer dropped." Indeed, what can you do? And Joel Phillips invited everyone who feels like Bloody Marys and mimosas to be outside the bar at 10 Saturday morning.

Reality Goes Boom?

There will be a virtual reality demo station in the gaming area run by Mark Richards on Saturday. Various programs and games will be available. 2–4p.m. is reserved for sessions of "Keep Talking and Nobody Explodes". You are stuck in a room with a fiendish device and your friends have just found the manual. You have to describe the various pieces of the device while they have to describe back to you how to disarm it. Tick... tick... tick...

-Mark Richards

And a special minis event...

Demo scenarios for Sagamami Island Tactical Simulator (SITS) will be offered by Brooks Flugaur-Leavitt at 4:30 Saturday in the gaming area. SITS is a 3D miniature space combat game set in David Weber's Honor Harrington universe.

Parties to dip your toes in

(An incomplete list)

- MarsCon 2018, in room 210, offers White Russians and Jupiter shots. Ask for two spots of grenadine!
- The cookie-tasting contest ostensibly occurring on the patio wall of room 116 was nearly drowned out by the spirits, drums and guitar.
- In the so-called "Ball Pit" of Cabana 102, a lively horde of musicians encourage you to bring your instruments. And if you're bold, play Rocksmith next door in 103. Like Guitar Hero with actual instruments!
- General Technics in 108 will be partying tonight, starting whenever people show up.
- The Social Media party (including a wake for LiveJournal) starts at 8p.m. Saturday in 206.

And in Krushenko's Annex (Cabana 110)...

- Saturday, 8:30 p.m. to late: Bandana Square cons party, sponsored by Diversicon, Arcana and Con-Sarnit.
- Sunday at 7:15: A party for readers and viewers sponsored by Second Foundation, an SF book-discussion group.

-Eric Heidemann

In memoriam

Since Minicon 51 we've lost John Calvin Rezmerski (1942–2016) and Michael Levy (1950–2017), long-time teachers and critics of speculative fiction as well as lifelong fans. Michael Levy is especially remembered for his long-running participation in the "Year in SF" panel at Minicon, John Calvin Rezmerski is particularly remembered for his participation in the Lady Poetesses from Hell performance art group.

PENNYFINDER TALES

2. John M. claimed this from behind the large square mirror between rooms 220 and 223.

7. Found by Stef from the Bar Group while looking for #6, interestingly. It was under the small clear coffee table near the 1st floor South elevators.

9. This medallion was attached to the westmost fire extinguisher (which might cause a place to be “cool”) not recessed in the wall (and thus “hanging out”) in the North Tower. Also found by Stef, who was just looking under everything.
