EXTRA, EXTRA Medallion Hunt (#2) $\langle = 2^4 = \rangle$

Congratulations to everyone who has found Medallions thus far! As of 2:05 on Sunday (Saturday night), all the following Medallions have been found: 1 - 3, 5 - 6, 9, E, & I - L.

Thus, the following pennies are still waiting to be found by seekers:

4, 7 – 8, 10, 15, 20, A – D, F, & H.

Please find them! They want to come home and you want fun Minicon prizes(s), right? ©

G is missing and its tape is gone too. It could have been removed by the hotel but this is uncertain. I'm unlikely to replace it. If you have G, please move the pin from MIA to redeemed and come see me, Thorin or come to the Medallion Hunt Recap at 15:30 Sunday.

 $\pi$  malfunctioned and will not be replaced this year due to the limited time left. However, it will be put in the same place next year assuming we are still allowed to use that location. -The Cluemeister

CLUES: ROUND 2

- 4. A large displacement, I can't abide, yet lots of distance, now that's my ride. I will only be visible intermittently as I oscillate. (My net displacement will be 0 or very near 0).
- 7. Sometimes I'm children, sometimes, I'm near music. I hang out where I am near different kinds of programming items.
- 8. I'm sitting here in my little "blind". You won't be able to approach me from behind. Kittens(s) might like to hide here.
- 10. Almost no one will need to pass by me but when your life is taking "ups and downs" you might need to walk by me. It's better for you than the more usual method of ascension.
- 15. I'm with someone who makes things clean and dirty. My "handler" often wears black or other attractive outfits.
- 20. I'm with one who is around day and night. She's not Cinderella but she's cute & polite.
- A. Check under the tables, check in the halls... and don't forget to check the walls.
- B. I'm between a table and a wall. Where I am, you can also call... well, no you can't. However, you can call from there.
- C. This is the name of someone you know but he is not carrying this medallion. The one you seek displays his name.
- D. Many pass right by this medallion. It does not gate-keep but it could be in your way, depending upon the time of day.
- F. No one has found me yet but my last clue was completely honest. Several of you have sat right around me this weekend.
- H. I'm not easily startled but if I'm "alarmed" I will likely hear the blaring of a speaker (or other small technological, box-like item).
- G. MIA. Do not seek blame. Do not seek anger. Do not seek me. 9 will return in 2024.
- $\pi$ . A Malfunction also took out this medallion. James Bond Will Return... as will 9 &  $\pi$ .
